Life across Borders

A free immigration film series

4/10: White People

What does it mean to be white? MTV's 'White People' is a documentary on race that aims to answer that question from the viewpoint of young white Americans today. The film follows award-winning journalist and filmmaker, Jose Antonio Vargas, as he travels across the country to get this complicated conversation started.

7/11: Documented

In 2011, award-winning journalist Jose Antonio Vargas outed himself as undocumented in an essay in the New York Times Magazine. Documented chronicles his journey to America as a child; his journey through the US as an activist; and his journey inward as he re-connects with his mother, whom he hasn't seen in over 20 years.

8/23: Exodus

The first-person stories of refugees and migrants fleeing war, persecution and hardship — drawing on footage filmed by the families themselves as they leave their homes on dangerous journeys in search of safety and refuge in Europe.

TBA: Exodus: The Journey Continues

The intimate stories of refugees and migrants, caught in Europe's tightened borders. Amid the ongoing migration crisis, the film — a sequel to the award-winning 2016 documentary, Exodus — follows personal journeys over two years, as countries become less welcoming to those seeking refuge.

All screenings begin at 5:30 pm at the Esperanza Center: 430 S. Broadway
